MR. WEBER SUICIDES.

In Old Citizen of Petersburg Shoots Himself with a Pistol.

HEALTH AND SPIRITS.

n a Gallant Confederate Soldier or Davis Assaulted by University School-Bays.

PETERSBURG, VA., December 2.-(Special.)-Mr. Peter E. A. Weber, aged 72 years, an humble, but widely-known citizen, committed suicide about 7 o'clock this morning at his residence, No. 431 Miller street, in Blandford, by shooting himself through the head. The Coroner held an inquest over the body at 11 o'clock, when the following facts were developed by the testimony of sworn

About & o'clock this morning Police-Marcus Siate, whose beat was in Blandford, and whose home happened to be next door to that of the Webers, went into his house to get a cup of coffee and morsel to eat. While hurriedly drinking his coffee, he was startled by a loud knocking at his door. There he found Mrs. Weber and her daughter in their night apparel, who, in great trepidation declared that they had fled from home for fear of their lives, as Mr. Weber had threatened to kill them. They asked the officer to go over and see Mr. Weber and endeavor to quiet him. The ladies were invited in by Officer Slate, who im-mediately went over to see Mr. Weber. VERY MUCH EXCITED.

The officer found the old gentleman in The officer found the old gentleman in his room, apparently very much excited. He had a big stick in his hand, with which he at first threatened to kill the officer, but the latter, by his coolness and gentleness, finally succeeded in quieting him, and bringing him back to reason. Officer Slate then returned home, and, advising the ladles to remain at his house, went to the gas-works to inform Mr. George Weber of his father's condition. Young Mr. Weber immediately went home, where he found his father lying in bed. The old gentleman asked his son what he wanted, and when the latter responded that he had come to asked his son what he want to he latter responded that he had come to look after his welfare, ordered him to go away and bring his sister back. The son did as desired, and went over to officer Slate's and brought his sister nome, after explaining his father's re-quest. He then went back to his work, out returned home at 6:30 o'clock to his oreakfast. During this interval nothing breakfast. During this interval nothing had apparently occurred, but while eating his breakfast young Mr. Weber requested his sister to get him a clean thirt, as he desired to come into town and get a shave.

A PISTOL IN HAND. To get the garment the young lady had go into her father's room, and, sup-sing her father to be resting quietly, e entered his apartment. She found posing her father to be resting quietly, she entered his apartment. She found her father with a pistol in his hand, and as soon as he saw her, threatened to kill her. She ran back to her brother, and told him what had occurred. Mr. George Weber at once ran and closed the door of his father's room, with the view of preventing him from doing any damage to his daughter, and in the mean time sent out for the assistance of a neighbor. While the effort was being made to confine the old gentleman to his room, a report was heard like the sound of the explosion of a percussion cap, and all was still.

LIMBER IN DEATH. Upon opening the door the body of Mr. Weber, limber in death, was found lying on the floor, and pressing against the door. The body had to be shoved the door. The body had to be shoved back before an entrance could be ob-tained. The shot had been fired from an eld-fashioned "pepper-box" pistol, carry-ing a very small ball, and had entered the head just above the right ear. Appane head just above the right ear. Appa-ntly death was immediate, though the cond barrel of the pistol was found ocked," as though to complete the ork.

The deceased was employed as watch-man at the yards of Messrs, Marks & Friend, It is said that for some time past that he had been in bad health and past that he had been in bad neatth and in bad spirits, and that his domestic rela-tions had not, in consequence, been happy. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and served during the late war in Branch's Artillery. AN INTERESTING CASE.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

A case of more than ordinary interest was brought before the Mayor this morning, but, by agreement of counsel, was continued until the 4th of January. The case involved the prosecution of eight of the students of the University School of this city, on the charge of assault upon Professor Arthur Kyle Davis, the principal of the Southern Female College, and on the charge of trespass on the latter's premises. Mr. W. Gordon Mc-Cabe, the master of the University School, cabe, the master of the University state present in New York, and the continuance was granted mains on this account. The trouble, it is reported, occurred by reason of the advances of certain young students of the University ol towards the young ladies of the

The Christmas trade practically ends with to-day. The weather for many days has been all that could be desired in this respect, and the people have not been slow to appreciate this fact. But the fact is also apparent that the Christmas trade has fallen far below the general trade has failen far below the general average. The people have not the money to make their usual purchases.

Mrs. Mary T. Gerow, an aged and respected lady of Dinwiddle county, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is now convalescent.

The Catholic and Episcopal churches of this city will be elaborately decorated in honor of Christmas. In other churches the proper decorations are being made aber 22.-(Special.)-Petitions are in circulation all over this county asking that the name of the post-office at old Appomattox Courthouse be changed back Appointation Courthouse be changed back from "Surrender" to "Appointanton," refardless of the name of the new courthouse. Our people want the name of the post-office at old Appointant Courthouse called Appointants, and we will not be satisfied with any other name for that office. Several hundred have already signed the petitions, and as soon as they are all in they will be sent to Representative Tucker, who will use his influence with the Post-Office Department to get the obnoxious name of "Surrender" stricken from the list of post-offices, and restore the dear old name of Appointant to that office.

WILL NOT STAND "SURRENDER." attex People Signing Petitions to Abolish the Obsoxious Name.
APPOMATTOX COURTHOUSE, VA.

A. HUTZLER'S SONS, 315 EAST BROAD STREET. THE GREAT HOLIDAY SEASON now stares us all in the face, and with its steady approach reminds us that THE ONE QUESTION WHICH HANGS HEAVILY upon the minds of the great majority is WHAT CAN WE SELECT FOR PRES-ENTS that will awaken grateful sentiments and reflect pleasure upon the donor? This question is one that we are called on to answer hundreds of times every day, and while suggestive replies may be as plentiful as the great bard's blackberries, experience has taught us that a glimpse experience has taught us that a glimps at a fair assortment of useful and decorative articles temptingly displayed can more satisfactorily answer the question than the wisest student of human nature. HOLIDAY GOODS are this year receiving our special and careful attention. Novelty of design, ar-tistic merit, mechanical genius, brilliancy in combination, and treasuries of thought are all united in the effort to please the eye and the mind. FOR THE LITTLE GIRLS there are dolls in endless variety; Dolls' Furniture in sets and in separate pieces; Tea-Sets of china or pewter: Washstands Sets, Parlor Games, Tables, Chairs, Stools, Sets, Parlor Games, Tables, Chairs, Stools, and Rockers, and an endless variety of Knick-Knacks and Hlustrated Books.

FOR THE LITTLE BOYS there are Foot-Balls in six sizes and two shapes; Drums, Iron Wagons, Hobby-Horses, Mechanical Engines, Iron and Wooden Trains, Ships, Fire Engines, Wheelbarrows, Toy Sleighs, Ten-Pins, Tool-Chests, Soldier and Firemen's Suits, and lots of other things.
